Dear Mr. Dulles:

We know you are much too busy to take part of a day off to attend a stag party in New York but if you should happen to be there April 14, this is Mike Cowles' invitation. About 60 men from the Hill will go up as our guests in special cars on the 12 noon Pennsy train and return on the sleeper that night. You would be very welcome in the group but we will settle for you dropping in if you are in New York that day.

We also invite the governors of several eastern states and a couple dozen members of the Republican National Committee. The party has no significance or purpose - just an opportunity for Mike and John Cowles to entertain some 400 of their friends at an informal stag reception and buffet dinner.

Sincerely,

James S. Milloy.
